Car Description

This exceptional Porsche 991 GT3 RS with PDK transmission was delivered in Germany in 2016 and was particularly customized at the customer's request. The vehicle has only been driven 15 km since delivery. The history of the vehicle is fully documented and all documents such as the order and new car invoice are available. The vehicle was manufactured in the special color lava orange, the interior impresses with the perfect symbiosis of GT3 RS bucket seats and the workmanship quality of a Porsche 991. A major maintenance will of course be carried out in the Porsche Center before delivery to you, as well as a new HU and the tires will be replaced due to age.

The vehicle has the following features:

- EU6 plus emissions concept
- Exterior mirrors can be folded manually
- Exterior mirror glass convex on the right
- Carbon door sills, illuminated
- Rims painted in base color
- Acoustic package RDW
- Sky Alcantara
- Xenon light
- Alcantara sports steering wheel
- PCM 3 navigation
- RDK valve silver
- Club sports package
