Car Description

This white Porsche 356 C Cabriolet with police equipment was put into service in 1964 by the Freiburg State Police Directorate. The entire vehicle was extensively restored over a long period of time and returned to its original condition. The engine and transmission were repaired using many new parts according to original specifications. All other components of the vehicle such as the chassis, brake, oil and fuel system, electrics, rims and interior have been overhauled.

A Classic Data report for the vehicle with a grade of 1 is available upon delivery. TÜV and AU are of course new upon delivery. We are also happy to help you with registration.
